Interview with Prof. John Lennox "Gunning for God" May 2016

What have you learned from all the public debates and personal conversations with atheists in the last years?

There is a trend of authors called "new New Atheists", who believe Dawkins and others have been too aggressive. What do you think about this new friendly face of atheism?

Beyond the debate of ideas, what things do Christians struggle most with when they talk about God to their friends?

What are the challenges and opportunities when sharing the gospel in your own context, the United Kingdom?

You train Bible preachers across Europe. How do you think the Bible should be used in evangelism?

How Can the New Atheists, Claim that It Is on the One ...

... Choice between God, and Science as the New, Atheist ...

There Can Be no Science Spy Minh Is Not Suggesting that Atheists CanNot Do Science That Would Be Completely Untrue He Is Saying that if We Eliminate God There Is no Rational Basis for Science Indeed There Is no Rational Basis for Truth Science and Truth Are Left without Warned Contrast Biblical Theism Is Coherent in Its Explanation of Why the Universe Is Scientifically Intelligible It Teaches that God Is Ultimately Responsible as Creator both for the Existence of the Universe and the Human Mind Human Beings Are Made in His Image the Image of a Rational Personal Creator and that Is Why They Can Understand the Universe At Least in Part It

The Oed Makes Clear that Faith and Belief Are Cognate Concepts Intimately Related to the Question of Substantiating Evidence That Is Evidence Based Faith Is the Normal Concept on Which We Base Our Everyday Lives We Then Found that the New Atheists Idiosyncratic Definition of Faith Leads Them to Failing To Appreciate the Role of Faith in Science and Failing To See that at the Heart of Science Is the Belief that the Universe Is Rationally Intelligible We Went On To See that the New Atheists View of the Origin of the Human Cognitive Faculty Gives Them no Ground for the Faith and Science That They CanNot Do without Indeed Their Reduction of Human Thought to Neurophysiology Is Ultimately Nihilistic and Destroys the Possibility of Truth Thus Undermining the Validity of all Arguments

It Is Ironical that the New Atheists Are Classic Examples of the Very Thing That They Despise They Are Characterized by the Blind Faith that all Faith Is Blind Faith It Is Also Ironical that the New Atheists Do Not Even See that They Themselves Are Driven by Faith Even as They Seek To Destroy It They Believe that the World Is Rational that Truth Is Important They Have Faith that Their Own Minds Can Understand the Things They Are Talking about They Also Have Faith that They Can Convince Us by Their Arguments

It Is Also Ironical that the New Atheists Do Not Even See that They Themselves Are Driven by Faith Even as They Seek To Destroy It They Believe that the World Is Rational that Truth Is Important They Have Faith that Their Own Minds Can Understand the Things They Are Talking about They Also Have Faith that They Can Convince Us by Their Arguments if They Think that Their View Is Not a Faith or Belief System Why Do They Try To Give Evidence To Get the Rest of Us To Believe It
