

litigating health rights can courts bring more justice to health human rights program series

#health rights litigation #courts and justice #human rights programs #health equity #legal access to healthcare

This program series critically examines whether litigating health rights through courts can truly enhance justice within human rights programs. We explore the effectiveness of legal avenues in securing health equity, assessing the impact and potential for greater accountability in health-related human rights issues.

Every paper is peer-reviewed and sourced from credible academic platforms.
