#Demobilized veterans #Late Stalinist period #Soviet veterans #Post-war Soviet society #Social history of Stalinism

The demobilization of veterans following World War II in the late Stalinist era presented significant challenges and opportunities for both the state and the returning soldiers. This period saw veterans navigating complex social, economic, and political landscapes while the Stalinist regime sought to reintegrate them into a society still grappling with the war's profound impact, ultimately shaping their experiences and identities in unique and lasting ways.
