Announcement to support the Maroon Movement's Baltimore Free Store!

Words from anarchist prisoner Sean Swain, Sean speaks about his experiences with the Parole Board “speak about your book and what led you to write it?”

“what would you say to skeptical listeners to hold their attention?”

“describe what you mean by magic and witchcraft”

“could you go into animism a little more?”

“we are taught that the witch trials = six crazy days in Salem that one time. Could you go into the actual scope and some of the context?”

Musical Break with Feminazgul's The Rot in the Field is Holy off of their as yet unreleased album “No Dawn for Men”

“talk about the tension between inspiration and appropriation in a magical practice?”

“how is capitalism trying to incorporate witchcraft and how can people push back against it?”

“is there a spell or practice that you would suggest to listeners, especially those who are interested in incorporating magic into their activism?”

“how can people learn more about you and get in touch?”

closing sentiments.
