It all began in 1962, when European leaders created the Common Agricultural Policy or CAP.

The goal was to ensure plentiful and affordable food for Europeans

In 1992, farmers became the direct recipients of EU funds

Further improvements came in 2003

The importance of reducing greenhouse emissions

With the 2009 Lisbon Treaty

the European Parliament gained new legislative powers

And in 2013, Parliament used those new powers

In 2019, MEPS began work on the revamped CAP proposal

In 2021, Parliament approved the new CAP for 2023-27.

Scammell, Densham & Williams' Law of Agricultural Holdings - Supplement

This definitive text provides practical analysis of the law of agricultural holdings in an authoritative and accessible manner. Scammell continues to be a practitioners' manual, for lawyers, rural chartered surveyors and others. The approach to the Supplement has been, not only to bring the law up to date, but to add further commentary to assist the practitioner. Key highlights of the supplement include: * Developments in relation to the issue of licences. * Whether a tenant can force a landlord to erect a new slurry store under the Agricultural Holdings Act 1986. * Developments in relation to partnership property. * A rare case relating to sporting rights. * Clarifying rent review procedures under the AHA 1986. * Addressing the issue as to whether a notice to quit can be withdrawn and further commentary concerning notices to quit given without prejudice and subject to contract. * The requirements as regards the form of a notice to remedy. * A raft of Tribunal cases relating to certificates of bad husbandry. * Further issues in relation to the recovery of possession of land for non-agricultural use under the AHA 1986. * The relevant date for qualifying for the principal livelihood test after a retirement notice seeking succession. * Changes in the statutory list of short term improvements under the AHA 1986. * Numerous important cases relating to issues concerning the service of notices. * Developments in relation to estoppel, including estoppel by convention, affecting rural property. * Numerous arbitration decisions and more practical points. * Developments in respect of expert determination. * Changes to European law, continuing to affect landlord and tenant arrangements, as well as two cases of judicial review of DEFRA decisions.

The Law of Agricultural Holdings, Comprising the Agricultural Holdings Act, 1908. Fifth Edition

The Ninth edition of this definitive text provides practical analysis of the law of agricultural holdings in an authoritative and accessible manner. It contains a fully updated commentary on the Agricultural Tenancies Act 1995, taking into account all the changes since the previous edition. It also contains the full text of all relevant statutes and statutory instruments, as well as forms and precedents for both types of tenancy. There is also a section highlighting the Mid Term Review of the Common Agricultural Policy. Written by leading practitioners, in a convenient bound format, it is an indispensable reference to the law which will be helpful to lawyers, land agents and surveyors practising in this area. This set includes the first supplement available in 2011.

Agricultural Holdings and Tenant Right

This concise and well-established working guide for landowners, farmers and their advisers explains the law on the ownership, occupation and use of agricultural land. Essential Law for Landowners and Farmers provides an invaluable source of sound advice, clarifying the complex problems facing landowners today, and explaining the law governing their resolution. In this major new edition, all the chapters have been re-written and several added, to reflect the enormous changes in the law over the last eleven years - from the new access to open land to environmental issues and the introduction of the farm business tenancy. Designed for quick and easy reference, the book concentrates on issues of prime relevance to landowners and now with a further reading section, this book is an essential single source of guidance on land law. According to Lord Plumb, writing on the last edition, reading it could avert much 'dispute and misunderstanding ... argument and bloodshed'.

Scammell, Densham and Williams' Law of Agricultural Holdings , Mainwork and Supplement Set

Excerpt from Agricultural Holdings (England) Acts, 1883 to 1900: With Explanatory Notes and General Forms, Also the Board of Agriculture and County Court Rule and Forms, Together With the Allotments and Cottage Gardens Compensation for Crops Act, 1887 The collection of Statutes known as the Agricultural Holdings (England) Acts, 1883 to 1900, deals with the subject of compensation for improvements effected on agricultural holdings and market gardens, and with certain other matters affecting the relations of landlord and tenant on such holdings. The statutes included under this heading are the Agricultural Holdings (England) Act, 1883, the Tenants' Compensation Act, 1890, the Market Gardeners' Compensation Act, 1895, and the Agricultural Holdings Act, 1900. They may be cited together under the above heading, and the three later Statutes are to be construed as one with the Agricultural Holdings (England) Act, 1883. The Agricultural Holdings (England) Act, 1883, effected important changes in the law relating to holdings of whatever size, either wholly agricultural or pastoral, or in part agricultural and as to the residue pastoral, or in whole or in part cultivated as a market garden. ### Scammell and Densham's Law of Agricultural Holdings

This book is an introduction for the non-specialist practitioner. It aims to guide the reader round some of the main landmarks of the law of agricultural tenancies in England and Wales. Its approach is practical and not academic. Along the way it points out some of the biggest pitfalls to avoid. Hopefully, it will give the reader enough knowledge to be able to identify an agricultural law problem when they see one, and, having done so, to know that the problem may have to be dealt with using special tools, rather than by mixing and matching knowledge from other forms of commercial land-holding (such as business tenancies under the Landlord and Tenant Act 1954). As well as updating the text of the first (2019) edition to take account of legislative changes, the second edition includes some entirely new material on 'Special Case' Notices to Quit, dispute resolution (including arbitration and third party determination), and discussion of some recent cases. ABOUT THE AUTHOR Dr Christopher McNall is a barrister, mediator and arbitrator at 18 St John Street Chambers, Manchester. He specialises in disputes about farms (and especially tenancies under the Agricultural Holdings Act 1986) and farming, taxation (especially of agricultural land and buildings), proprietary estoppel, and Inheritance Act claims. He has advised and appeared in many leading agricultural and tax cases in courts, tribunals and arbitrations. He holds a variety of fee-paid judicial offices, including Chairperson (Principal Judge) of the Agricultural Land Tribunal for Wales / Tribiwnlys Tir Amaethyddol Cymru. He is also a member of the Arbitrator, Mediator, and Expert panels of the Agricultural Law Association's Dispute Resolution Service and a Fellow of the Agricultural Law Association. He was Consultant Editor of the 'Agricultural Holdings and Allotments' section of the latest edition of Halsbury's Laws of England and writes the 'View from the Bar' column for the Agricultural and Rural Affairs section of Practical Law.
