A Day in the Life of a Seminarian - St. Thomas Aquinas Seminary - A Day in the Life of a Seminarian - St. Thomas Aquinas Seminary by SSPX News - English 329,816 views 7 years ago 3 minutes, 51 seconds - At 6:00am the bell is rung which breaks the great silence of the night. The seminarian begins the day with the morning prayers.

What is it like to live within the walls of a seminary?

The seminarian begins the day with the morning prayers.

After a silent breakfast, the seminarians have various duties before the first class at 9am.

After grace, a short text from the New Testament is recited in Latin, followed by a longer reading from a selected book.

During recreation, a variety of games and exercises are available: volleyball, basketball, baseball, football, soccer, and in the winter, ice hockey and tobogganing.

Before the afternoon classes, there is time for a brief visit to the Blessed Sacrament.

Hence, the space assigned to the library is exceeded only by that of the chapel.

Compline, the night prayer of the Church is sung, closing appropriately the day with a Marian antiphon before entering the great silence.
