Customary International Law • Unwritten / Regional/Global • Derive from a general practice accepted as law. • Consistent state practice • Belief that the practice is required by law (opinio juris) • CIL is comprised of all the written or unwritten rules that form part of the general international concept of justice

2. Customary International Law . Unwritten / Regional / Global • Derive from a general practice accepted as law.. • Consistent state practice • Belief that the practice is required by law (opinio juris) • CIL is comprised of all the written or unwritten rules that form part of the general international concept of justice.

Unlike treaty law, which is only applicable to those states that are parties to the particular agreement, customary law is binding upon all states, regardless of whether they have ratified a treaty • is limited in that it is not codified in a clear and accessible format and the content of the rules is generally less specific than what you may find in a treaty.
