XRP will reach extremely high value through banks and central banks, not retail investors, according to James Wallace.

XRP's global acceptance and partnerships with countries and banks will lead to its potential value of $10,000.

XRP will reach $10,000 according to James Wallace.

XRP's potential to reach $10,000 is tied to its use by central and commercial banks for issuing digital currencies as more currency becomes digital.

XRP's potential to reach $10,000 is based on its robust and environmentally friendly technology, designed for cbdc transactions with user-friendly interfaces and essential offline capabilities.

XRP will reach $10,000 based on SBI remit, Asianet VC trade, and Ripple's partnerships with central banks and discussions with 130 countries for Central Bank digital currency.

XRP will reach $10,000 due to its global trust and instant movement, driven by tokenizing real estate and providing low-cost transactions, while China's economic crisis will impact the digital yuan.
