Cat Tales

Beautifully rendered charcoal and pencil sketches of cats illustrate this distinguished collection of stories, which celebrate, in high literary fashion, the enigma that is the cat. Illustrations add to the charm and take nothing away from these feline-inspired stories that are written by respected writers such as Mark Twain, P.G. Wodehouse, Damon Runyon, Doris Lessing, Rudyard Kipling, Emile Zola, and more. The combination is nothing less than a collectible discovery for fans of the literary cat.

Cat Tales

Great Cat Tales

The collection includes a retelling of the classic "Puss in Boots;" the story "The White Cat," about the mysterious resident of a sumptuous castle, stumbled upon by a young prince in search of the perfect bride; and "Old Mr Pussycat," the story of a wise old pussycat who helps a warm-hearted little girl in trouble. The stories are vibrantly illustrated, breathing new life into these classic children's tales.

Cunning Cat Tales

Six-Toed Cat Tale

'Cat Tales' is a collection of three delightful short stories about kittens who find themselves in some precarious situations and how they, along with their caregivers, learn some tremendous life lessons the greatest of which is love. First, there is the lovable and cuddly Katie in 'There's No Place Like Home' who comes to realize that the warmth of home is much more attractive than the harshness of the outside world; that after the adventures of life-pleasant and unpleasant, it's good to come to a home where love and care reign supreme...even from those you least expect. Next up is 'The Kitten in the Mail' whose mother teaches the reader about sacrificial love and the ultimate way to show appreciation. She endears herself to Amy and her mother when she presents them with a very special gift. The story is about the bond between Amy and her pet kitten and the journey they go through together to finding that special name for the kitten! In the final short story, Nelly and her pet kitten Penny share a very close relationship; so much so, that Nelly and her mother worry about Penny's seemingly 'poor' eating habits. Their deep concern takes them on a search for 'The Perfect Cat Feeder' to encourage Penny to eat more regularly. They found the perfect cat feeder alright....but it was the last option that they ever imagined! The close relationship between human beings and their pets has been around since time immemorial. 'Cat Tales' highlights this special bond and presents it in a way that can be enjoyed by the entire family.

The Summer Nick Taught His Cats to Read

A cat hears three stories about a dull rainy day, a yummy bug, and a good day destroying things around the house.

Cat Tales

Dog is a cat- the only problem is that he doesn't behave like one! Instead he wags his tail, sticks out his tongue and yaps in a manner which is distinctly puppyish. Something has to be done! The pride of cats is at stake - the shame of an entire species a consequence of allowing a feline to behave in such a disgraceful canine manner.

Three Stories You Can Read to Your Cat

Twins Katrina and Alex normally live on a houseboat in London, but are spending the summer in Scotland while their mum, a brilliant musician, receives treatment. Aunt Clara is an artist, like Alex, and Uncle Archie is a forest ranger. Almost right away, the twins find themselves searching for what seems to be a big cat. Or, is something stalking them? "Rebecca Smith writes with such subtlety about the lives of twins Alex and Katrina, uprooted from an uncertain life in a London houseboat after their vulnerable mother is found collapsed and in need of rehab. Up in the Scottish Highlands, despite the idyllic landscape and the loving support of their aunt and uncle, something fearsome is prowling in the shadows. Could the deep scratches on a tree and the attacks on local livestock be the work of something bigger and wilder than a fox or a dog? Has Alex really seen it outside in the night? Or are he and his sister just being stalked by their own dark fears while they wait to find out whether their mother will recover? A wonderfully atmospheric and lyrical story, unsentimental but so affecting." - Ali Sparkes

A Cat Called Dog

Cat Tales

A cancelled flight opened a new chapter in Lynne's life. Along with her husband she was 'stranded' on the beautiful island of Corfu, Greece. For the first time in her 75 years, this wife and grandmother of 10 had time to herself. This was a unique period in Lynne's life and a dramatic time in the history of the world. Covid19 was dislocating and destroying the lives of so many people. Against the backdrop of the pandemic Lynne was able to draw positivity and simple pleasures from her beautiful surroundings and, most importantly of all, derive great joy and delight from the local cat population. A review of the book from Dr Lee Durrell: ' This book is about cats, of course, enchanting and extraordinary creatures that they are, each with its own loveable character and temperament. It is also about the magic of Corfu - its profusion of spring wildflowers, melodies of sheep bells and centuries-old traditions. But there is much more going on here. Lynne Sayer's diary ranges from current global events to deeply personal ones. We hear about covid, Brexit and threats to American democracy, as well as the doings of her children and grandchildren in lockdown England. This is well worth a read as a chronicle of our times....and for cat-lovers everywhere. The modest purchase price goes towards improving the lives of stray cats and kittens in Lynne's region of Corfu. The book ends with a heartfelt appeal to contribute to the work of Kassiope Cats Meow, which is "the best way to help the brave little cats". I, for one, could not resist it! ' Lee Durrell, Corfu, October 2021

Praise for Cat Summer, winner of the Cat Writers' Association Muse Medallion for Sci-fi/Fantasy 5-Star Review! "Cat Summer combines ecological concern with fantasy and a love of cats to create a bifurcated futuristic tale." -Amazon Reviewer 5-Star Review! "A story that blurs the lines of mythology, spiritualism, mysticism, science." - Amazon Reviewer Lise has a special destiny: to help a clowder of sentient cats save the world from an evil older than history itself. It is a terrible battle, but Lise and her feline comrades prevail, putting an end to war, poverty, ignorance and want. The world is a better place.

Or is it? A century later, it becomes clear that something has been lost. The new civilization produces no artists, no musicians, no scientists, no philosophers. Inertia has taken hold. Lise, now at the end of her life, must join her cat-friends once more to restore the Spark of the Human Spirit, but the goal cannot be reached without sacrifice.

Not Your Ordinary Book of Cat Tales

An irresistible collection of short stories for cat lovers. At the annual gathering of the MEOW society, cats of all kinds convene to share their stories and those of their ancestors. And Georgio shares his delectable—and sometimes surprising—recipes. Cat Diaries is a winning companion to Dog Diaries, also by Betsy Byars and her daughters Betsy Duffy and Laurie Myers. With gorgeous black-and-white illustrations by Erik Brooks, animal lovers and reluctant readers will be wooed by the charm, strength, and wit of these feline friends.

New York Magazine

Toto is no ordinary cat, and she can't wait for you to join her on her THIRD ninja adventure! After months of keeping London safe from notorious animal bad guys, Toto the Ninja Cat is going on a well-earned holiday to the world's most famous music festival - Catstonbury! But a villain has a dastardly plan to hypnotise the crowd when a world-famous band is on stage, turning them into evil minions. How can Toto possibly prevent the catastrophe when everyone thinks the band is the cat's pyjamas? It will take all Toto's ninja skills - and some help from a friendly otter - to save the day... Ideal for reading aloud or for children to curl up with and read alone, the story features brilliant black and white illustrations throughout. With gentle themes of friendship, inclusivity and winning in the face of adversity, this is a hilarious must-read for all animal-loving kids! The hardback edition features paw-print endpapers and a superstar inner-cover hidden beneath the jacket - making it a brilliant gift for young readers. From one of the UK's best-loved broadcasters, the Toto series is purrfect for fans of The Aristocats, The Secret Life of Pets and Atticus Claw Breaks the Law. Dermot says: 'The idea for Toto first came to me when my wife and I rescued two stray cats from an olive grove in Italy. One of them, Toto, has been blind from birth, but we quickly realised she had ninja-like reactions. Like a lot of cat owners (or cat servants), we like to imagine our pets having secret lives when we're out or asleep. So before I knew it I was writing about Toto and her brother Silver's nocturnal adventures around London. I really hope that children who pick it up enjoy reading the adventures of our little Italian underdog (cat).' Have you read Toto's other adventures: The Great Snake Escape and The Incredible Cheese Heist?

Cat Tales

This is a classic wartime tale of a (real!) cat who made his home at the Faber offices and decided he'd never leave. 'This time we need to get you - get all of the kittens, safe out of London,' said Morgan decisively . . . 'To have a chance for a better life, well, let's just say, I've got an idea.' Morgan is a young orphan who lives off scavenging - until he finds a cosy home at a famous London publishing house. Over time he learns a trade - and soon becomes the very best book cat in the business. And then the Blitz begins. Morgan finds himself training up twenty odd kittens to be book cats, and then there is the small matter of secretly evacuating them out of London. Happily, Morgan has a plan. Set in war-torn London, charmingly illustrated, and full of heart and verve. 'Charming.' Sunday Times 'A sweet feline twist on the classic evacuee story.' The Guardian 'A delightful book.'
