we live in a world of fake news.

You know the stories they tell us; the world is becoming worse off every day.

I still see grounds for optimism.

we have made huge progress in areas like poverty, infant mortality, hunger crime, education, and disease reduction

but the strongest nation in the world is not the USA

as the African proverb states, if you want to go fast, go alone.

But if you want to go far, you go together.

A business that builds bridges instead of walls.

See, the truth is there is no first or third world.
