The Roman Foundations Of The Law Of Nations Alberico Gentili

#alberico gentili #law of nations history #roman law international #gentili legal philosophy #foundations of international law

This seminal work by Alberico Gentili meticulously explores the profound influence of ancient Roman legal concepts on the development of the Law of Nations, a foundational precursor to modern international law. Gentili's analysis illuminates how Roman jurisprudence provided essential principles and structures that shaped early doctrines of interstate relations, offering crucial insights into the historical origins of global legal thought.
