The Key to Personal Finance for Musicians! - The Key to Personal Finance for Musicians! by TAXI Independent A&R 634 views Streamed 8 months ago 1 hour, 31 minutes - Nailing the creative side of the music industry is a given, right? And the business side of the industry has become more important ...

TAXI Music's CEO, Michael Laskow, introduces Bobby Borg and Britt Hastey, and provides their bios. This is not to be considered legal financial advice, always check with your personal finance advisor or planner.

If you buy a $5 cup of coffee every day for a year, that adds up to roughly $1,800 a year! That money could be earning interest!

Britt shares some good budgeting tips that would be good to stick to.

Saving on little things can add up.

How do people get out of debt?

Credit card debt is the worst, try and pay them off monthly. If you have a few credit cards, use the one with the lowest interest rate.

Be careful with loan consolidation.

The "Snowball" or "Avalanche" method is explained.

Wealthy people often times do not come from wealthy families.

The definition of wealth is not how much you spend, but how much you have in the bank.

Bobby shares a Jay-Z quote: "Don't buy it unless you can buy it twice."

What should young people in their 20s do to save and invest vs. people in their 50s?

Day trading can be fun, it's best to consult with a professional though.

With regard to the Robin Hood App - be responsible, it is not a game, and it's not about getting rich.

Create a budget and get out of debt. It's important to put money into an emergency fund - at least 6 months of living expenses.

If you max out a retirement account will you save on taxes now or later?

What does "tax deferred" mean?

Wills and trusts are important.

When looking for a CPA, it's best to find one with music business experience and make sure they will represent you if audited.

Finding an accountant with previous IRS experience can be helpful.

Voluntary Income Tax Assistance (VITA) is a free tax-prep service for people who make less than 58K a year.

Is there a difference in finance for musicians vs classical musicians?

Any tips on healthcare for musicians?

Is there a benchmark you need to meet before claiming your work as a business compared to a hobby?

Are the concepts in their book universal or more directed to American musicians?

Is a printed receipt from an online purchase considered an original receipt?

Keep your receipts for 7 years in case you are audited.

If you are living in your car, can that be a tax write-off?
