The RAF roundel on the underside of the port wing is hacked off as a souvenir, as a feeble attempt is made to extinguish the fire.

Wilson is sat down and interviewed by his captors, likely not the incident he describes in the interview as the officials he mentions are not apparent.

Also featured in the footage is Vickers Wellington Ic W5630 that had been shot down the previous day on March 18th 1941. The 3 Group Training Flight Stradishall aircraft was on a delivery flight to Benina when the crew got lost and strayed over enemy territory and like Wilson were forced down by gunfire claimed by I./Flak-Regiment 33. They also set fire to their aircraft to prevent it being captured intact.
