#romania post communism #romanian transition #fall of ceausescu #eastern europe democratization #romanian economic reform

Post Communist Romania refers to the period following the 1989 revolution and the overthrow of Nicolae Ceausescu. This era has been marked by a complex transition from communism to a democratic, market-oriented society, facing significant economic and social reforms. It encompasses Romania's journey towards European integration, grappling with the legacy of its authoritarian past while striving for modern development.
