Intro

CHAPTER 8 INTRODUCTION TO LIFE SKILLS

Chapter objectives After the successful completion of this chapter, you will be able to • Define life skills
• Describe features of life skills • Identify components of life skills, and . Give illustrative examples of life skills and analyze its features

Life skills are generally... • The force that strengthens the ability of all individual to evolve, have self-confidence and to prosper, breaking the barriers of knowledge. attitude and skills ... skills that is useful in our life skills one need to manage the activities and challenges of everyday life effectively
Definition . It is also defined by UNICEF as "behavioral changes or behavioral development approach designed to address a balance of three areas: knowledge attitude and skills".

8.2 Components of Life Skills Certain skills may be more or less relevant you depending on your life circumstances your culture, beliefs, age, geographic location, etc. However, in 1999, the World Organization identified 10 key areas of life skills.

Self-confidence is the degree to which one can rely on his her ability to perform certain behavior alone or in public. It is individual's trust in his or her own abilities, capacities, and judgments, ce belief that he ce she can successfully face day-to-day challenges and demands

Decision-making - Processes involved in combining and integrating available information to choose, implement and evaluate one out of several possible courses of actions.

Reflective communication - attending communications with thoughtful and due attention to reflect on one's own thinking, behaviors and interaction with others

Peer pressure resistance - individual's abilities and skills to confront negative influences from his/her group members

Knowing rights and duties - One's knowledge and understanding of rights and duties of individuals, groups, institutions and nations allowed to do or not to do by law and/or a culture

Problem solving the process ON identifying a discrepancy between an actual and desired state of affairs, difficulties, obstacles and complex issues and then taking action to resolve the deficiency or take advantage of the opportunity

Life skills can improve all areas of your li from your work to your relationships • They allow you to handle almost everything better, from processing your emotions more effectively to interacting with others. • Many life skills are not taught in school. . Life skills take practice, development and an understanding that there is always room for improvement
