What exactly happened at that time of your near-death experience?

Did this profound experience also influence your artistic career in some way?

Did you find people you could talk to about this experience in 1972?

What was it like processing these experiences?

Which answers did you find to those big questions in life?

As a spiritually oriented person, what's your relationship to traditional religions?

Do you think that there is really more behind such coincidences? That there is really something like guidance? What did you experience at that time?

Have you dealt with the influence of the spiritual world on the physical world?

What do you think about esotericism?

What do you recommend to people who are looking for something deeper in life but don't want to follow anyone in order to become more aware?

What does sin mean to you?

Do you think that the term of responsibility is essential as well?
