War on Terror

What They Did Know Was that They Were Getting Data from People and They Did Know that They Were Really Smart and They Had Computers and They Knew How To Do Things with those Data That Others Didn't Yet Know How To Do and So There Was a Sense that One Can Track and Trace and I Do Believe that It There Is Much More Here under the Hood for Historians To Discover that these Stories Have Not all Been Excavated

And I Mean that's the the Piece of It That's I Think Particularly Scary Is that It's Not Sort Of Is It Are We More Scared of Surveillance by the State or Are We More Scared of Corporate Surveillance
When Really It Is this Nexus that Where It Was Born in this Nexus and in some Countries the Nexus
Is Very Clear like China and India Where It's Totally Integrated the State Surveillance and Corporate Surveillance It's It's the Same Machine and You Know I Think It It Shows Maybe the Stakes of this but the Flip Side of It That's So Weird Is this Narrative

This Is the Most Painful History To Read of History of Death and Destruction of Murder of Just Unimaginable Cruelty and So I Honor that I Recognize that but There Are some Strange Things about the the Sort of Niceties of the Conquistadores That Fascinated Me for Example Back in the Court of Isabel and Ferdinand They Decided that You Know We'Re GonNa Take these Peoples Lands and Their Gold and Everything Else Their Lives and Their Labor but We Want To Do It Legally We It Would Be Nice To Do It Legally Should Be some Kind of It Should Be Legal Let's Let's Make It Legal
This Is Not the Work of a Day or a Month or a Year this Is the Work of the Next Decade and I Have every Confidence that We Will Do this Work Number Two I Opened Up on the Subject of Collective Action and this Is Where Other Forms of Ownership so a Century Ago You Know It Was Our Economic Roles That Forced Us To Discover Trade Unions and Collective Bargaining and the Right To Strike the Forms of Collective Action That We Brought To Bear To Rein in the Imbalance of Power To Create a Kind of Equilibrium

So You Know that Work I Believe Is a Is a Frontline Crucible for What some of these New Forms Will Be and Finally There There Will Be a Role for Commerce in the Connected Sphere I Mean I Don't See that Going Away What I Do See Going Away Is that the Whole Thing Is Owned and Operated by Surveillance Capital That You Can't Get Your Children's Grades from the School without Marching through Surveillance Capitals Supply Chains That You Can't Get Your Health Data without Marching through Its Supply Chains That You Can't Plan Dinner with Your Family and Friends without Marching through Its Supply Chains this Is Intolerable this Is Illegitimate this Is Unacceptable

Now Looking at What Was Its So-Called Private Sector Its So-Called Private Internet Companies Seeing All the Capabilities Just like We Have Here that They Have Developed and Realizing that this Is Too Good To Let It Be Private We're Going To Annex that to Our Ambitions and Kind Of in the Spirit of Cambridge Analytic I Be Able To Do All the Things That the Surveillance Capitals Can Do but Do Them To Fulfill Social and Political Outcomes Rather than the Commercial Outcomes that Surveillance Capitalists Are after So these Are Two Different Trajectories Right Now I Mean in China They're Entirely Compatible Trajectories I Mean They Also Want You Know Obedient Consumers and Laborers

The Thing Is What They Did When I Told You about that Google Invention Story What They Did Was Instead of Figuring Out through Careful Institutionalization How They Were GonNa Make Money and Actually Amazon Did Begin Its Life as a Cunning and Ruthless Capitalists but Not Necessarily of Surveillance Capitalists Right and He Was Building an Institution in a Very Deliberate Way but in the Case of Google and Facebook Really They Found the Sort of Straight Line as the Crow Flies to Maximum Monetization and that Became the Standard so Most Startups and Apps and All the Stuff That Is Happening in the Tech Sector Emulated Them or Bk or Somehow Found a Niche in that Ecosystem because that Was the Standard for for Generating Revenues and Ultimately Margins The Real Wild West: A History of The American Frontier | Documentary - The Real Wild West: A History of The American Frontier | Documentary by Footprints of The Frontier 1,078,399 views 1 year ago 55 minutes - Every country has a past that seems to be embraced within their contemporary character projected on both themselves and to the ...
