And the Same as God When Ignorance Is Destroyed and Consciousness Is Freed the Devotee Becomes God One Must Contemplate on What One Has Heard One Who Loves the Guru Loves Himself Remember What You Have Heard the Guru Keeps Repeating So Many Things but Do They Stay with You Consciousness in the Body Is the Image of God if Consciousness Is Not Sensed in the Morning You Will Not Be Able To Carry Out any Actions the Sense You Are that You Get When You Wake Up Is the Holy Sight of God Consciousness Was Tiny When It Woke Up but How Far Has Its Light Spread It Takes Account of all Things Real and Unreal

You Are Not Yet Free of the Concept That You Will Get Great Good in the Body Form the Vital Force in the Body Is Consciousness the Atman the Pure Nature of Shri Krishna Is the Same as Your Own Nature the One That Makes the Body Move CanNot Be Perceived You Must Listen without the Body Sense the Real Nature of the Listener Is of the Nature of the Self It Is Your True Nature Use Your Khan Business for Worship Rituals up for the Satisfaction of the Mind

What Is the Source of these Visions Is It Not Consciousness if You Live with the Conviction that You Are the Life Force in the Body the Universe Will Manifest Itself to You through the Tiny Vital Force Just as a Big Tree Grows from a Seed a Rare One Worships the Consciousness with Consciousness Most Worship with Bodily Identification with that Stance One Does Not Go beyond the Five Elements due to Consciousness in the Body the World Is Sensed

Keep Firmly in Your Mind that Consciousness in the Body Is Your True Nature When Prana Goes Does the Body Have any Pain It Could Be Used as Food Bliss Is the Fire of that Knowledge Fire Does Not Burn Itself It Burns the Wood Similarly the Atman Does Not Come and Go by Sticking to the Guru's Word the Perverse Intellect Will Stop Its Mischief Neelu Panna 63 Sunday September 24th 1978 I Am-Ness Is a Dream When We Sense We Are Space Gets Created along with the World
When We Sense We Are Space Gets Created along with the World You Say the World Is Much Older than We Are However It Is Not Older than Our Consciousness Meditate on Your Own Consciousness

Be Aware of that Remember that the Memory of Your Beingness Has Come to You Suddenly without Asking To Meditate on that Means To Be One with that To Dwell on Thoughts of Your Well-Being as a Misconception To Think that You Are Awakened Is Also a Misconception All these Concepts Are Present Only When You Are the Experience of God Comes in a State of Sickness

Is Silent Then There Is no Awareness of whether I Am or I Am Not Maharaj Says that the Manifest Principle I Am Is a Sickness the Unmanifest without Qualities Is beyond It When Water Evaporates or When Fires Extinguish Does It Mean that It Is Dead Whatever Is Visible Has Disappeared Can It Have any Truth Drop all Insane Concepts and Just Be Quiet When You Are Convinced that You Have Gone beyond the Need of Your Consciousness You Need Not Come Here There Is neither Creation nor Dissolution without the Satguru One Who Knows this Reaches the Same State the Guru Word Is Our True Nature this Japa Is To Be Repeated without Words the Word of the Satguru Is Your True Identity

One Who Knows this Reaches the Same State the Guru Word Is Our True Nature this Japa Is To Be Repeated without Words the Word of the Satguru Is Your True Identity What Remains after Everything Is Extinguished Is It Your True Nature those Who Worship the Sun Guru as a Human Being Are Doing So for Worldly Achievements It Is Not Devotion for Knowledge the Five Elements and the Rest I li Name Form Etc Will Disappear What Remains Has no Sense of Duality Such as this Is My Satguru The Five Elements and the Rest I li Name Form Etc Will Disappear What Remains Has no Sense of Duality Such as this Is My Satguru and this Is I There Is no Other Support for the Manifestation and Dissolution of the World except for the Satguru that Which Is Prior to the Word Has no Identity It neither Is no Is Not Your Consciousness Is the Light of the Guru the Holy Feet of Sri Guru It Is Your Two Nature Even if You Are a Beggar Remember Well that the Guru Word and You Are the Same the Eyes See but the True Seer Is the Satguru

The Body Is Subject to Death the One Who Knows the Body Is He Known by the Body and Prana Consciousness That Illuminates Is the Knower It Is the Perfect Brahman the Perfect Bliss the Love Devotion and Your True Nature Do Server to this Consciousness but Do Not Take It To Be the Body Do Not Neglect the Body either It Contains Pure Consciousness the Satguru It Is Self-Love It Is the Nectar of the Holy Feet of the Satguru One's True Nature the Uninterrupted Bliss Has To Be Discovered the Basin's to the Satguru Is the Same as the Obeisance to Our Consciousness Do Not Neglect the Body either It Contains Pure Consciousness the Satguru It Is Self-Love It Is the Nectar of the Holy Feet of the Satguru One's True Nature the Uninterrupted Bliss Has To Be Discovered the Basin's to the Satguru Is the Same as the Obeisance to Our Consciousness Is It Not so that by Which You Feel You Are Is the Same through Which the World with Its Five Elements and the Living Beings Is Created the Holy Feet of the Satguru Are the Same as Your Consciousness It Is the Same as the Sensation You Have that You Are You Must Realize Their Pure Movement

And the Living Beings Is Created the Holy Feet of the Satguru Are the Same as Your Consciousness It Is the Same as the Sensation You Have that You Are You Must Realize Their Pure Movement Then Whatever Appears to You Will Be Pure and Sanctified To Remove Ignorance Catch Hold of the Holy Feet of the Satguru without Duality Remain in Your Natural State without Doing Anything Worship that Which Is in the Body in that Which Gives You the Satisfaction of Your Beingness due to Your Devotion the World Gets Uplifted Why Do People Suffer all Kinds of Miseries

004 WORK WITHOUT MOTIVE Notes from lectures and discourses Volume 5 Complete Works of Vivekananda - 004 WORK WITHOUT MOTIVE Notes from lectures and discourses Volume 5 Complete Works of Vivekananda by Adhyathmikam 134 views 6 years ago 6 minutes, 35 seconds

- Many are of opinion that the Gita was not written at the time of the Mahâbhârata, but was subsequently added to it. This is not ...

on the 20th March, 1898, Swami Vivekananda gave an address on

When the Gita was first preached, there was then going on a great controversy between two sects. The other preached that the killing of numberless horses and cattle cannot be called religion. The people belonging to the latter party were mostly Sannyasins and followers of

They believed that the giving up of all work and the gaining of the knowledge of the Self was the only path to Moksha

By the preaching of His great doctrine of work without motive, the Author of the Gita set at rest the disputes of these two antagonistic sects.

Now, what is the meaning of working without motive?

Nowadays many understand it in the sense that one is to work in such a way that neither pleasure nor pain touches his mind.

but if they feel quite callous to pleasure or pain, then they also would be working without motive. If the meaning of it be such, then one who has a stony heart, the worst of criminals, might be considered to be working without motive.

In the above sense the doctrine is a potent instrument in the hands of the wicked.

They would go on doing wicked deeds, and would pronounce themselves as working without a motive.

If such be the significance of working without a motive, then a fearful doctrine has been put forth by the preaching of the Gita.

Arjuna killed Bhishma and Drona in battle, but withal, he sacrificed all his self-interest and desires and his lower self millions of times.

Gita teaches Karma-Yoga.

We should work through Yoga (concentration)

In such concentration in action (Karma- Yoga), there is no consciousness of the lower ego present. The consciousness that I am doing this and that is never present when one works through Yoga. The Western people do not understand this.

They say that if there be no consciousness of ego, if this ego is gone, how then can a man work? But when one works with concentration, losing all consciousness of oneself the work that is done will be infinitely better and this every one may have experienced in his own life.

We perform many works subconsciously, such as the digestion of food etc., many others consciously

If the painter, losing the consciousness of This ego, becomes completely immersed in his painting, he will be able to produce masterpieces.

The good cook concentrates his whole self on the food-material he handles

He who is one with the Lord through Yoga performs all his works by becoming immersed in concentration, and does not seek any personal benefit.

Such a performance of work brings only good to the world, no evil can come out of it.

Those who work thus never do anything for themselves.

The result of every work is mixed with good and evil.

There is no good work that has not a touch of evil in it.

Like smoke round the fire, some evil always clings to work.

We should engage in such works as bring the largest amount of good and the smallest measure of evil.

if this had not been done Duryodhana could not have been conquered, the force of evil would have triumphed over the force of good

We are reading the Gita by candle-light, but numbers of insects are being burnt to death

Thus it is seen that some evil clings to work.

Those who work without any consciousness of their lower ego are not affected with evil, for they work for the good of the world.

To work without motive, to work unattached, brings the highest bliss and freedom.

This secret of Karma-Yoga is taught by the Lord Shri Krishna in the Gita.

Bell's British Theatre

First book of its kinds written originally in the English language.

A Complete Treatise of Land Surveying, by the Chain, Cross, and Offset Staffs only, etc

Tea gowns, bleached damask, and yards of flannel and pillow-case lace, stereoscopes, books of gospel hymns and ballroom gems, the New Improved Singer Sewing Machine, side saddles, anti-freezing well pumps, Windsor Stoves, milk skimmers, straight-edged razors, high-button shoes, woven cane carpet beaters, spittoons, the Studebaker Road Cart, commodes and washstands, the "Fire Fly" single wheel hoe, cultivator, and plow combined, flat irons, and ice cream freezers. What man, woman, or child of the 1890s could resist these offerings of the Montgomery Ward catalogue, the one book that was read avidly, year after year, by millions of Americans on farms and in small towns across the nation? The Montgomery Ward catalogue provides one of the few irrefutably accurate pictures of what life was "really like" in the gay nineties, for it described and illustrated almost anything that anybody could possibly need or want in the way of "store-bought" goods. In fact, in that pre-department store era, it was usually the only source for such goods. Imagine if Montgomery Ward had issued an illustrated catalogue in the days of Louis XIV, or Elizabeth I, or Charlemagne: what insights would we have into the daily life of the "common folk," the farmers and shopkeeper, housewives and schoolchildren . . . what sources of information for historians and scholars, collectors and dealers, what models for artists and designers. In 1895, Montgomery Ward was the oldest, largest, and most representative mail-order house in the country. The brainchild of a former traveling salesman, it issued its first catalogue in 1872, a one-page listing of items. By 1895, the catalogue, reprinted here, had grown to 624 pages and listed some 25,000 items, almost all of them illustrated with live drawings. Montgomery Ward was by then a multi-million dollar business that profoundly affected the American economy; and since it reached the most isolated farms and backwoods cabins, its effect on American culture was almost as great. Now once again available, it is our truest, most unbiased record of the spirit of the 1890s. An introduction on the history of the Montgomery Ward Company and its catalogue has been prepared especially for this edition by Boris Emmet, Ph.D. (Johns Hopkins), a foremost expert on retail merchandising. His monumental work Catalogues and Counters has long been recognized as a landmark in the study of American economic history.
