#Francisco Goya #Los Caprichos #Goya satirical prints #Spanish Enlightenment art #critique of human folly

Explore Francisco Goya's iconic 'Los Caprichos' series, a powerful collection of satirical prints. These artworks brilliantly critique the vices, superstitions, and follies of late 18th-century Spanish society, often depicting figures akin to 'know-it-alls' (sabelotodo) and ignorant masses. Delve into Goya's masterful use of allegory to challenge reason and expose the darker aspects of human nature, making these works timeless in their social commentary.
