Hospitality Team

When people feel loved, accepted, and safe, they are more likely to open their hearts up to God, enter into praise and worship, and receive the message. Barna research has determined that the average person decides whether they will come back to a church within the first five minutes upon arriving. That is before they ever hear the first song or the message. Those first five minutes determine how people will receive from God during the rest of the service. Our words and actions must convey the same love and value that Jesus Christ demonstrated. In Hospitality Team Ushering in Excellence, you'll discover how to:

- Fulfill your passion, while being fully committed to the common goals of the team.
- Usher people into a meaningful relationship with God.
- Help people build a Bible-based sense of self-worth.
- Usher in a way that reinforces the "in Christ" message.

How Right Worship Changes Us

A practical book on how to worship God Biblically and authentically. This book is aimed at worship leaders and pastors, challenging them on issues of the true gospel and how we short circuit worship when we preach a cheap gospel. For worship to be true, lasting and authentic it must be based on heart authenticity AND solid theology. If it is not, our worship will fall apart during times of duress in our lives when we don't "feel" God like we used to. Many churches today have taken the bait of trying to make worship "cool" to supposedly reach seekers. The problem with this is that in doing this we maim the true worshippers who actually want to experience the power and presence of the Spirit of Jesus.

From Defeat to Victory

He had to remind himself that the worst years were behind him. Almost a man now at the age of seventeen, he took on a stature comprised of masculine good looks with the flawless countenance of an angel. He was caramel in tone, and his hair beautifully contoured naturally at his nape. Standing at six feet, not completely bulging in masculinity, but good enough to hold his own. His attractive features did not take him to a place of conceit. With all his good looks and structure, he was full of humility and honor. As he continued to walk toward his first destination, he realized that the presence of God was thick round about him that he began to see the glory of his God. He realized the splendor of grass before him, how brisk the wind was, and how sweetly the birds sang, it was truly a fact that all of nature joined him in worship; one must truly realize that the anointed one is ever present.

Worship: Adoration and Action

Anxious that current interest in and discussion of worship are too much preoccupied with mere mechanics, Dr. Carson joined with an international group of scholars to produce this final volume of the five Tyndale Consultations. First, a biblical theology of worship is explored by the Japanese, Yoshiaki Hattori, and the Australian, David Peterson. From this foundation, there follow reflections upon the practice of worship in nine different contexts: denominational (including Anglicanism and Lutheranism), cultural (South America and the Two Thirds World), and also the charismatic movement and student groups. In the final part, the Croat theologian Miroslav Volf concludes that worship is "the outworking of God-centredness in individual and corporate experience". The opinions expressed, although at times in disagreement with one another, are an indication of the wealth of diversity within the worldwide church.

Worship has always been at the center of God's heart. Ironically if you turn to the center of your bible you will see the book of Psalms. The styles of the music accompanying them have changed dramatically over the years but the underlying constant throughout the ages is the intent of the musician to bring a proficient, heart-felt offering through his musicianship. But how does one accomplish such an undertaking? The answers lay just ahead in the chapters that follow. This comprehensive instructor's guide, which parallels the popular book "The Art to Leading Worship," is a practical teacher's manual which helps teach students, worship leaders, and musicians, in the applications necessary in attaining the goal of reaching a state of excellence in ones music and its presentation to a congregation. ### The Nine Levels of Anointing Power for Christian Growth

This book deals with the rites of passage into adult Christian living. to pass through these powers of anointing by the Holy Spirit, all of us must take a journey from babyhood (new birth in Christ) to growing in spiritual maturity into that perfect man or woman of God (Ephesians 4:11-12). This will not come overnight or quickly in our walk with the Lord; it will take time, and many will have to sacrifice the things of this world to achieve it. But it can be done by all who are willing to follow the Lord in this world. One hundred percent of us must start by passing through the first level of power that the Holy Spirit bestows upon all who believe in Christ Jesus. Everything in our lives will begin at the cross of Calvary, and from there, we will all go on a trip with the Holy Spirit that will forever change our lives every day. the Holy Spirit will become our teacher and guide (John 16:13) and, depending on how much of him we want, will determine the level of growth we achieve as Christians in this world. It will not come because of traditions of men or preachers proclaiming to have absolute truth but only by the Holy Spirit himself as he teaches and witnesses with your spirit the revelations of God's Word that only he can give (Romans 8:16). I invite you to travel with me through the pages of this writing and discover the truths that are within. I take no credit for what the Holy Spirit of God has revealed; only he has the wisdom and revelations to open our eyes to his Word. and only he has the anointing power to grow us up from level to level as we progress in his knowledge and power. But here is a truth you must know: the Holy Spirit will not take you any further in spiritual growth than you are willing to allow him to (Matthew 7:11). At every level of anointing you have to pass through to grow and go on to the next level, you will have to ask of him and be willing to sacrifice what needs to be given in order to achieve it. Many who are tied up in religion and bondage to denominationalisms will try to keep you from this growth. Very few in the body of Christ will ever reach full maturity in our Lord. Most already believe that they have achieved this level because they are good Christians--they go to Church, give their tithes, help a few people, work in the church, and say their prayers every day. Outwardly, this may seem like the perfect saint of God, but the Lord is seeking more from us to pick up our cross for him and follow him. This will require commitment, a sold-out attitude, sacrifices, and even death--if that's what it takes! Twelve apostles willingly lived their lives for him and gave their lives in death. the question today is, "How far do you want to grow in Christ?" and "Do you want to live your life for him or continue to play church on earth?" This book will change the way you see yourself with Christ; it will help you come out of organized religion and walk with your Lord the way he meant it to be. Only the Holy Spirit can show you these things to come. I hope this book will challenge you to become the mature Christians God intends for all of us to become. In Christ's love, Dr. Richard E. Weathers, Psy

Developing an Effective Worship Ministry

Here is practical, to the point teaching that makes the ministry of praise and worship approachable. Local churches will benefit immensely from these proven ideas and helpful tools.

Excellence

With wisdom and sharp biblical insight, John White points to the life of Nehemiah, showing us a man of prayer and a man of action; firm leader and servant of his people; realist and visionary, and above all, man of God.

Leading Churches

Hungry for Worship takes a provocative look at ten specific worship challenges facing churches—regardless of church size—over the next decade. Through a balance of historical perspective, theological truth, and practical experience, pastor Frank Page and associate music dean L. Lavon Gray encourage pastors and those responsible for leading worship to evaluate their worship in light of these challenges. With these practical ideas, pastors and worship leaders can ensure their church is positioned to weather the changes of pop culture and experience healthy worship.

Excellence in leadership

An open letter to the 21st century church, from the 21st church; The Heart Condition is THE conversation about the elephant(s) in the room that we have for too long ignored. Modern living and its comforts have undoubtedly led to a compromise in the condition of our hearts, and consequently; faith, belief and our ability to relate with an eternal God have all suffered. A poorly manifested version of Gods truth in and through our lives is what we see as a result. This book provides a conscious move away from todays heuristic twist on Christianity a cult of celebrity, secularism, personality, soulish-emotionalism, compromise and gold; toward a more perfect Christ-centred existence. A must read for Christians everywhere.

Zion and the Melchizedek Priesthood

Worship is an integral element of the typical church worship service. Yet no church formulates worship quite the same way. It seems that each church has its own style, culture, and worship personality. With all the differences in worship today, what makes up a true worship service? How do we know that worship is being done in a Biblical way? Worship leaders come in all shapes and sizes. What are the true functions of a worship leader? What does the Bible say about leading worship? How does worship leadership look that is pleasing to God? Worship is the place where the tangible presence of God comes down and reaches human beings. When true worship comes down to earth, it brings the presence of God. It is Jehovah God coming to earth to meet with His creation. Humans reaching up and into the presence of God can bring down whatever it is that is needed for life, health, goodness, healing, and wholeness. Whatever we need is in the presence and the glory of God. The Wonder of Worship is designed to teach tools to develop the talent and the gifting that comes with a worship leader. However, just because you are not called to be a worship leader doesn't mean you cannot learn how to be a better worshipper within these pages. This book will take you into the presence of God. It is a must-read for anyone who desires to glean, learn, grow, and become the best worshipper you can be on this earth in preparation for the eternal worship service that we someday will be joining.

These fundamental practices are critical to the success of congregations. Their presence and strength demonstrate congregational health, vitality, and fruitfulness. By repeating and improving these practices, churches fulfill their mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.
