

Everyone Here Spoke Sign Language Hereditary Deaf

#hereditary deafness #sign language users #deaf community communication #inherited hearing loss #sign language culture

Explore a unique community where every member communicates fluently through sign language, a direct result of hereditary deafness passed down through generations. This creates a profoundly interconnected deaf community with its own rich sign language culture, offering invaluable insights into shared communication and a vibrant way of life for those with inherited hearing impairment.
