Chapter 9

Chapter Four Is a Narrative

Vision of the Throne of God

Well that's a Significant Shift if We're Taking Notice of the Chronology of the Business That's a Significant Shift in the Book Here Daniel Is under Duress Daniel Persists in Prayer to God That Is I Mean the Command Was that He Should Abstain from Praying to any Other God and to Duras and Daniel Refuses the Kings Edict He Does Not Pray to the Rice about Persists in Praying to the True God of Heaven Yes that's a Story in Itself How He Was Then Promoted to Great Honor Indeed so He prospered in the Reign of the Rice and in the Reign of Cyrus the Persian Thus Does Chapter Six in Seven Is the Vision of the Four Beasts and Son of Man That Obviously Stands by Itself and Eight Is a Quite Separate Vision Self-Contained of Course and It's About Two Beasts

So He prospered in the Reign of the Rice and in the Reign of Cyrus the Persian Thus Does Chapter Six in Seven Is the Vision of the Four Beasts and Son of Man That Obviously Stands by Itself and Eight Is a Quite Separate Vision Self-Contained of Course and It's About Two Beasts Nine Likewise Self-Contained Is the Story of God of Daniels Great Prayer about Jerusalem

And Eight Is a Quite Separate Vision Self-Contained of Course and It's About Two Beasts Nine Likewise Self-Contained Is the Story of God of Daniels Great Prayer about Jerusalem How It Had Been Cut Down and When Would It Be Rebuilt Finally in the Book I suggest to You'll that Chapters 10 11 and 12 Are all One Not Three Chapters about Three Parts of One Whole Why Do I Say that Well because the Vision Is Dated to the Third Year of Cyrus King of Persia the Vision Is Then Described How Daniel Saw this Man above the River
