Children living with HIV/AIDS The reality of a neglected disease

Every day mothers and caregivers face the gruelling task of treating their young children with HIV/AIDS with the current formulations.

3.4 million children are living with HIV/AIDS, mostly in Sub-Saharan Africa.

Without treatment, half of all HIV positive children will die before the age of 2.

DNDi is working with partners to develop an adapted and improved first-line treatment for these children.
