About Cicero

Introduction to the Text

Preliminary Remarks

The Philosopher of Charity

Relationship of Beauty to Moral Goodness

Section 69

Classification of Duties

So Moral Reasoning Requires You To Have an Incredible Amount of Artful Reasoning You Can't

Just Look at Something Simply You Have To Look at It in an Artful Way That Sees Its Relationship to Everything Else because How Else Are You GonNa Know What whether or Not You Should for Instance Take the Tax Attorney or the the the Accountant Argument What Do You Need To Know To Have a Decision about that Conundrum of the Hundred and Thirty Dollars Right Well You'D Need To Know What Giving Your Word Is as a Professional You Need To Know What a Signature Is and What that Means You Need To Know the Moral Effect of a Little Lie about a Small Amount of Money and How that Might Affect You in the Future

Since I'M Not Sure What Time I Was GonNa Just Say I Don't Want To Do It but I Am Duty-Bound To Inform You of Five Minutes Thank You So Maybe What We'LI Do Is I'M GonNa Let Me Just Take You to New Things I Mentioned that Pairing of Reason and Nature and Then What Reason Does and How It Causes You to It Actually Reason Binds Us but So Does Nature That Is Our Affections and Our Bodily Animal Affections behind Us in Social Groups Create Great Love for Children

So that's One Thing We'Re Thinking about Then He Gives on Section 18 and Following He Gives this Very Short Couple Pages on Wisdom and Then He Moves On from Wisdom Rather Remarkably and Rather Quickly and Just Says Okay that's Our First Discussion of Wisdom Said this Is Not What We'Re Discussing I'M Not Looking at the Zoom Imboden Per Se I'M Trying To Look Down at the Complexity of Moral Reasoning and Moral Duty in Our Day-to-Day Lives but Also the Entire Rest of the Book Is an Instruction in Practical Wisdom and Prudence so He Leaves Off He Just Says There's Two Errors Right the First Error Is To Think that You Know Something You Don't

Things Including that Property Really Is Something That You Have To Be Ready To Let Go of and that Really in a Certain Sense It's Not Natural Property Is Not Natural to You and the Reason Why He Says this the Property Is Not Natural to You Is because He Wants To Remind You that Your Nature Calls You to Virtue and in the End if Philosophy and Teaches Moral Duty and Philosophy as a Preparation for Death Then before You Die because You Can't Take It with You You Actually Have To Learn How To Part with all of Your Property Even Your Health Right Even the Last Property of Your Body if You Will Right but that's Metaphorical He Just Means Anything That's Not You Physically Your Body and Soul all of these Things Are Not Natural and if You Call Them Natural You Won't Be Called To Give Them in Charity Justice Liberality Generosity

And Practice What He Calls the Social Virtues Societas What He Tries To Do in this Discussion after Prudence and Wit Practical Wisdom in Discussion of Justices Not To Get You To Just See the Definition of Justice Which Is To Do no Harm and To Give to each His Due He Wants You To See Also that You Have To Go beyond that to What Aristotle Has a Small Section about Something Called Decency and He Says the Whole City Would Fall Apart without It Cicero Says that's Not Enough Nothing Agency It's Charity It's the Affective Bonds of Nature That We'Re Called To Love One another Right That You Have To Give of Yourself and Therefore You Can't Just Say Give to each His Due Because Then all You'Re Doing Is Coldly Giving the Things They Already Are Supposed To Have You Also Need To Be Able To Give Them More than Their Due Love Them Be Generous Be Open Be Friendly That's Uh Why He's Also Called the Philosopher of Charity Is He Sees Our Social Nature and Then He Begins To Build a Very Powerful Argument for Moral Duty That Includes Charity and Self-Sacrifice in and He Doesn't Quite Get to Self Gift per Se and the Sort of Personal Ism That You Find Later On

And He Even Has in Book Three He Expounds upon the Golden Rule Do unto Others as You Would Have Them Do unto You Right He Lays Out the Golden Rule as a Sort of Foundational Moral Principle and Yeah He's Very Much Looking at the Nature of Man What Are We and once We See What We Our Body and Soul Mind and Nature Reason Nature Then We Can Start To See the Kinds of Things That Lead to Our Flourishing and those Are the Things That We Should Pursue and those Are Called Virgins and Everything Else Is Vice and so the One Leads to Moral Goodness and Health in the Largest and Foremost Proper Sense so It's both Useful

Knowledge

But We Can Recognize that You Ask Something Good When We Admire under Other People because of Their Beautiful Behavior and this Is Exactly What Seneca Puts Forward When He Talks about How We Acquire What He Says Is Our First It's Important I Think To Emphasize the First Year Our First Notion of What Is Good We Derive that Notion from Observing the Behavior of People We Admire and Then that Behavior Is as It Were Characterized by the Kind of Integrity so It Makes the Behavior Harmonious because There Are as It Were no Conflict between Words and Actions and So On and So Forth

And Then that Behavior Is as It Were Characterized by the Kind of Integrity so It Makes the Behavior Harmonious because There Are as It Were no Conflict between Words and Actions and So On and So Forth so that's to some Extent in Episode Logical Function but Then There Is Also the Practical Side Which Is that in Order To To Have that Words You You Have To Behave in a Way That Makes You Liked by Other People and and You Know It Seemed in both Cases that It Made Sense To Appeal to Beauty because Beauty Is Not Only Admirable Kalan in that Sense but It's Also Pleasant

And the Brilliancy of Certain Conspicuous S to these We Shot Irs Nature Bridges Amplify Brains Were the Things Everyone Exhausts Renowned beyond the Truth and from Such Deeds We Reduced the Conception of a Grand Good so the Problem with Which Seneca a Sort of Makes Obvious Here Is that You Can Say that People Are Introduced to Virtue by Observing Beauty but We all Do Stories Also Say that There Are no Perfect People There Are no Historic Sages Maybe Socrates Was One They Sometimes Grudgingly Admit but They Would Certainly Never Have Claimed To Be One It's an Ideal You Know It's a Perfect Human Being and although We Should all as It Were See the Ideal as Something To Strive for It Is Perfectly Clear that We Won't Get There

But They Would Certainly Never Have Claimed To Be One It's an Ideal You Know It's a Perfect Human Being and although We Should all as It Were See the Ideal as Something To Strive for It Is Perfectly Clear that We Won't Get There So How Do We Actually Arrive with Our no-Fee Given that There Are no Actual Examples of Perfection That We Can Look at I'll See Their Inner Beauty as It Were Effective in Their Actions Well It Is because We Act like the Novices in Arts You Know We Don't See the Flaws and We Form an Idea either Sort Of You Know as Xenical Says by Exalting Its Seeing Something As Perfect That Isn't Perfect or as Palacios Puts It by Admiring Something Which if We Took some Philosophy Courses

Only by Virtue of the Immortality of the One the Mortality or the Other of One of these Namely God It Is Nature That Perfects the Good of the Other Pains and Study so We Have To Acquire Perfection through Our Own Efforts Gods Are Perfect by Themselves all Other Things Are Perfect Only in Their Particular Nature Not Truly Perfect since They Lack Reason Indeed To Sum Up that Alone Is Perfect Which Is Perfect According to Nature as a Whole and Nature as a Whole Is Possessed by Reason That Is To Say You Have To Say Get a Philosophy Course with the Stoics That Leads You to the Argument from Design to the Recognition that the Universe Is Ruled by a Divine Reason and that's the Best Order in the World

Men Could Do Was that They Were Held Back by the Fact that They Were Having Children All the Time so It's Perhaps Not So Surprising that this Century Has Seen More of a Liberation of Women than Others because We Also Have To Think of the Physical Side Everyone Thinking Back You Know You Have To Be either a Nun or the Most Most Preferable Thing in 19 Country's Being the Widow of a Very Rich Man because once You Have Been Married You Could Do What You Like but before You Were Married You Know You Were Being Sort Of Looked

For this You Do Find a Very Long Version of the Argument for Chrome Design in Cicero's De Titora

Theorem and that's Definitely Stoic So I Mean this Is Something and that's I Think Why It's an Innovation To Use the Sense of Beauty as Our Way towards Recognizing Virtue and to as Seneca Puts It To Acquire Our First Notion of the Good That Is To Say We Can Recognize Things That Are Good but We Can't Explain as It Were What Makes Them So so We Can Only Understand What this Inner Beauty Comes to once We Understand What Kinds of Beliefs about the You Know the Divide All over the World Leads to the Kind of Inner Harmony
