Excerpt from The Northern California District of the Communist Party Structure Objectives Leadership Hearings, Vol. 3: Hearing Before the Committee on Un-American Activities House Representatives Eighty-Sixth Congress Second Session May 14 and June 10, 1960 I think that is a fair summary of the testimony he just gave. I don't believe you were present in the hearing room at that time. In View of the fact that he said he can now anticipate a turn of tables on the incident of the last day or so, we Should like to ask you, sir, as the chief law enforcement officer of the city, to give us a brief account of the orders and directives which you gave to your officers respecting the maintenance of peace and order here in anticipation of these hearings, and based upon the information which has been reported to you by your subordinates in the course of the last 24 hours, the essence of the position of the police department here, under your jurisdiction, in respect to the incidents in which force was employed in the course of the last several hours. #### The Southern California District of the Communist Party, Structure, Objectives [and] Leadership

Excerpt from The Southern California District of the Communist Party, Structure, Objectives, Leadership, Vol. 1: Hearings Before the Committee on Un-American Activities, House of Representatives, Eighty-Fifth Congress, Second Session; September 2 and 3, 1958; Index in Part 3 Information has come to the committee of renewed Communist Party activities in this, a highly sensitive and important area of the country. The degree and extent of this renewed activity is deemed by the committee to be of such importance to the national welfare and defense of the country as to justify this investigation in order that remedial legislation may be recommended in this field designed to meet new threats of subversion. Mr. Margolis. I wonder, in the light of the statement of purpose, if I might have a few moments to consult with my client. The Southern California District of the Communist Party, Structure, Objectives [And] Leadership. Hearings

The official monthly record of United States foreign policy.

The Northern California District of the Communist Party, Structure Objectives Leadership, Vol. 2

Heavy Radicals: The FBI's Secret War on America's Maoists is a history of the Revolutionary Union/Revolutionary Communist Party - the largest Maoist organization to arise in the US - from its origins in the explosive year of 1968, its expansion into a national organization in the early '70s, its extension into major industry throughout the early part of that decade, and the devastating schism in the aftermath of the death of Mao Tse-tung to its ultimate decline as the 1970s turned into the 1980s. From its beginnings the grouping was the focus of J. Edgar Hoover and other top FBI officials for an unrelenting array of operations: Informant penetration, setting organizations against each other, setting up phony communist collectives for infiltration and disruption, planting of phone taps and microphones in apartments, break-ins to steal membership lists, the use of FBI 'friendly journalists' such as Victor Riesel and Ed Montgomery to undermine the group, and much more. It is the story of a sizable section of the radicalized youth whose radicalism did not disappear at the end of the '60s, and of the FBI's largest - and, up to now, untold - campaign against it.
