Story Structure Part 4: How to Write the Climax - Story Structure Part 4: How to Write the Climax by Ellen Brock 58,879 views 7 years ago 7 minutes, 55 seconds - Most writers are familiar with the basics of the novel's climax, - it is the final showdown, the moment the character succeeds or fails. Does the protagonist complete his/her character arc? This often takes the form of a personal sacrifice or even the loss of the initial goal/objective. The character arc should be completed in a final act of sacrifice, of overcoming a flaw, or of letting go of a false belief. The protagonist should have a moment of facing down the antagonist entirely on his/her own, even if it is just a single moment within a larger battle.
