

Greening The City Urban Landscapes In The Twentieth Century

#urban greening #20th century urban planning #city landscape history #parks development #environmental movements 1900s

Explore the pivotal trends and movements that defined the 'greening' of cities throughout the Twentieth Century. This period saw a transformative shift in urban landscapes, driven by evolving ideas in urban planning, public health, and environmental consciousness, resulting in the creation and expansion of essential green spaces that continue to shape metropolitan environments today.
