NEUTRALITY The question of enforceability most often turns on the contents of these agreements. One area of particular concern is the procedure for selecting an arbitrator. An essential requirement for a fair arbitration is neutrality.

CONTROL Arrangements that give the employer effective control over who can arbitrate a case or require the use of arbitrators with business ties to the employer are unlikely to be enforced.

LIMITATIONS Limitations periods for filing arbitration claims that are shorter than those that would apply to court proceedings have sometimes, but not always, been deemed unconscionable.
