We are joined by the co-author and overseer of The Mammoth Book of the World's Greatest Chess Games, FM Graham Burgess

How did GM Wesley So and GM Michael Adams get involved in the project?

Graham shares some details on the game selection process.

Did the authors think of using engines to judge the "quality" of the games?

Perpetual Chess is brought to you in part by Chessable.com. Their new and upcoming courses include GM Simon Williams updating The Life and Games of Mikhail Tal, and GM Hans Niemann course on Jobava London.

We return to discuss some highlights of the book.

Which legendary player is featured the most in the book?

Should they have more engine games?
